

The Pale Sub Camp

19 May 2009

Hello,

Firstly thank you very much for applying for JamÓige staff. We are very happy to announce we have reached our hoped staff numbers. Although we will happily welcome any more staff should you know anybody teetering on the brink of applying.

I am James Carroll the Chieftain of The Pale (the staff sub camp). I will hopefully be there to welcome as many of you as possible as you arrive. If not I will see you at induction. Each and every member of staff will attend an induction session. This will familiarize you everything you need to know about JamÓige. At this session you will receive your ID badge and camp issue.

Our campsite will be a short walk from the main sub camps nestled in a quiet and tranquil part of the grounds. We're hoping to make The Pale a nice and quiet retreat from the main sub camps and program areas. A place where we can all catch up on our sleep ahead of providing the best program, logistics and fun we can.

Some of you have already been contacted regarding your roles for JamÓige others will be assigned roles on arrival. Each of you will have a contact point for your jobs over the weekend. Failing that I am your next port of call.

Check in will begin from Friday morning at 10am. If staff wish to arrive from 6pm on Thursday evening they will be very welcome but they must inform us of their arrival time in advance. Can staff who will be arriving after 9pm on the Friday please inform us in advance so we are aware of your arrival time.

Monday is going to be a very hectic day with all staff needed to get the JamÓige site dropped and cleaned as quickly as possible. Please consult your team leads about your duties for this day.

Can any staff with special dietary or medical requirements please make us aware of them via the website (<http://events.scouts.ie>). In the coming days will be opening up the transportation form on the website so you can tell us when you expect to arrive and depart along with your mode of transport.

Staff will need uniform and a costume in line with the information detailed to the participants packs, I urge you to make yourself familiar with all of these relating to Beaver and Cub Mailings 1 & 2 on www.scouts.ie/events/jamoige as they will help you become familiar with what is happening on the event.

I look forward to seeing you all on JamÓige. If you have any queries on the above, please contact me by email by mailing events@scouts.ie just put my name in the subject line

YiS,

James Carroll,
Pale Sub-Camp Chieftain.
