

Fishing

Fishing is a great hobby to have as it gives a chance to learn the value of waiting and having patience. Fishing also is best when a small number go fishing as it reduces the disturbance to fish. In the "Caribbean" land theme fishing fits in perfectly as it gives a chance to learn a crucial survival skill not to mention learning how to deal with your own company and getting to know it.

Getting Started...

Plan

- Talk in the six about going fishing and what are the main components of a fishing trip should entail
- There are a few things to bear in mind like restrictions on where and what can be fished.
- Talk to a local expert fisherman about what they should do

Do

- Ireland has loads of angling clubs and places to fish
- Contact local club or person invite them to chat to the Cub Scouts about going fishing
- Get their help in how to go about fishing.

Review

- Have a short review of how things are getting on while the six are sitting down and waiting for a bite from the fish...

Resources

- Contact the local Inland Fisheries Ireland office for local details.
- <http://www.fishinginireland.info/>

Top Tips

- Try fishing with your hands or trying to trap a fish
- Be careful not to trespass on private property and check out restrictions on fishing

