Jambassadors

Since our previous Jambassador open call, we had received a significant number of entries.

We have since contacted everyone who had gotten accepted and will be in contact soon regards their training!

We are running multiple training sessions throughout March! Keep an eye out on our social media for the dates!

Thank you for everyone who applied.

How to organise a Jambassador to come and do a talk?

Each Jambassador will get in contact with their County Commissioner and CPC in the following weeks.

After completing their training, they will be able to provide a presentation to any size of a crowd.

To organise a Jambassador visit, contact your county commissioner or CPC who will put you in contact with your local Jambassador!

We are missing Jambassadors from the following counties:

Dublinia, Dun Laoghaire, Liffey West, Cois Ferraige, Three rock

Down and Connor, Erne, Dalriada

Cavan/Monaghan, Reachra, Ath Cliath

Kerry, Tipp Cois, Tipp North, West Cork

Clare, Galway

Carlow, Kilkenny, Cill Mhantain, Slieve Bloom, South Kildare, Waterford

Email ej2020@scouts.ie if you would be interested in filling those positions!

Presentations

Since the formation of the contingent we have already held a number of presentations in regards to the Jamboree.

We have attended the North Eastern, Dublin and Northern Provincial Conferences.

We will also be attending the following provincial conferences:

- Southern Eastern TBC
- Western Province 8th April

National Council

We will be attending National Council, so feel free to come up and ask any questions you might have!

Open Call - Administration Manager

Position Objective:

Administration Manager will be responsible for record keeping and file management.

Key Responsibilities

- Minute and distribute meetings of CMT
- Manage applicant registration, working alongside Troop Liaison Manager, IST Manager and staff members
- Manage the main contingent email address and direct queries where necessary
- Manage file storage in accordance with best practice
- Carries out any other functions or duties as required by the Head of Contingent or his designee

Key Selection Criteria

- Experience in administration of large groups
- High attention to detail
- Demonstrated ability to work as part of a team
- Availability for the full Jamboree and post-camp

Time Commitment

This position requires a consistent time commitment in the lead up to the event. It would not be unusual to spend 2-4 hours per week, most weeks on the project.

Weekends away promoting the event are also expected. Applicants should ensure they have the flexibility in their time to be able to accommodate this contribution taking into account their work or study requirements. This is a volunteer position.

How to Apply

Applications should be forwarded by email to the Contingent Leader, Gerry Finnegan, ej2020@scouts.ie by 15TH March 2019.

Your application should include:

- A brief history on yourself and details of your current and previous Scouting background;
- Prior relevant experience;
- Your vision for the role;
- How you address the key selection criteria;
- Include contact details for 2 relevant referees within Scouting;
- Why you feel you are the best candidate for the position
