MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION OF
SCOUTING IRELAND SERVICES
(AS AMENDED BY SPECIAL RESOLUTION ON 8th APRIL 2017)

1. The name of the company ('the Association') is Scouting Ireland Services.
2. The Aim of Scouting Ireland is to encourage the Social, Physical, Intellectual, Character, Emotional and Spiritual development of young people so that they may achieve their full potential and, as responsible citizens, to improve society.
3. In furtherance of the main object but not otherwise the Association shall have power:
 - a. to undertake any activities as will assist it in achieving its aim in encouraging the development of young people and promoting the development of young people to others;
 - b. to purchase, take on, lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real, leasehold or personal estate which may appear convenient;
 - c. to construct, maintain, manage and alter any halls, campsites, buildings, equipment or installations;
 - d. to receive donations, contributions, grants, subscriptions and bequests, to accept any gift of property, whether subject to any special bust or not, for any purpose within the main principal object;
 - e. to enter into any contracts or establish and maintain links or other arrangements with and make submissions to any Governments, State Agencies or Authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise or take such steps by personal or written appeals, public meetings or otherwise as may seem expedient for the purpose of procuring contributions to the funds or property, real or personal, of the Association that may seem conducive to the attainment of the Association's main object or any of them;
 - f. to print and publish any newspapers, periodicals, books or leaflets and engage in any publicity for the purposes of fostering the objects of the Association;
 - g. to promote, commence or oppose any proceedings or applications as may seem necessary directly or indirectly to advance or prejudice the interests of the Association;
 - h. to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Association;
 - i. to borrow and raise money and secure its repayment in any manner and to give guarantees for persons, companies, or other associations or bodies where such is in furtherance of the main object of the Association;
 - j. to invest the funds of the Association in or upon such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit. Prior permission to be obtained from the Revenue Commissioners where it is intended to accumulate funds for a period in excess of two (2) years;

- k. to employ such personnel as the Association may think desirable or necessary for the furtherance of its main object;
 - l. to accept, undertake and execute any trusts or any agency business which may seem conducive to its main object;
 - m. to subscribe to any local or other charities, and to grant donations for any public purpose or to enter into any arrangement for co-operation or reciprocal concession with any person, local authority, company, body or association, for the purpose of advancing, directly or indirectly, any main object of or any business carried on or intended to be carried on by the Association;
 - n. to establish and support, and to aid in the establishment and support any other association formed to promote its main object;
 - o. to amalgamate with any companies, institutions, societies or associations having main object wholly or in part similar to those of the Association;
 - p. to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any body with which the Association is authorised to amalgamate;
 - q. to transfer all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of the Association to any body with which the Association is authorised to amalgamate;
 - r. to devise, adopt, amend and suspend such rules and regulations as may be required for the efficient organization of the activities of the Association and its members;
 - s. to do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the pursuit to the attainment of its main object.
4. The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association. No portion of the Company's income and property shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to members of the Company. No Director shall be appointed to any office of the Company paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Company. However, nothing shall prevent any payment in good faith by the company of:
- a. reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer or servant of the company (not being a Director) for any services rendered to the Company;
 - b. interest at a rate not exceeding 5% per annum on money lent by Directors or other members of the Company to the Company;
 - c. reasonable and proper rent for premises demised and let by any member of the company (including any Director) to the company;
 - d. reasonable and proper out of pocket expenses incurred by any Director in connection with attendance to any matter affecting the Company;
 - e. fees, remuneration or other benefit in money's worth to any Company of which a Director may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the issued capital of such Company.
5. The Association is a voluntary, uniformed, non-formal educational movement for young people. It is independent, non-political, open to all without distinction of origin, race, creed, gender sexual orientation or ability, in accordance with the purpose, principles and method conceived by the Founder, Robert Baden-Powell and as stated by the World Organisation of the Scout Movement.

6. The Association achieves its aim through a of progressive self education, known as the Scout Method, the principal elements of which are:

- Promise and Law - the commitment to a code of living based on the values of the Scout movement;
- Personal Progression - a scheme to support the development of knowledge, skills and attitudes in all areas and to provide recognition for individual and group achievements;
- Learning by Doing - an approach that prioritises learning through practice, first-hand experience, and from both successes and mistakes;
- Small Group System – progressive, democratic and self-governing groups, usually of 6-8 young people, are the basic organisational structure of Scouting;
- Symbolic Framework - provides a setting for Scouting that stimulates the imagination through symbols, themes and stories;
- Nature and Outdoors - the natural environment is the primary setting for Scouting offering unique opportunities for the development of the young person;
- Young People and Adults Working Together - a partnership model in which young people are supported to become increasingly self-governing and independent; and
- Service and Commitment - recognises the importance of contributing to society by caring for others and the world around us.

7. The principles of the Association are enshrined in the Scout Promise and the Scout Law and they include:

- Adherence to spiritual principles, loyalty to the faith that expresses them and acceptance of the duties resulting therefrom.
- Loyalty to one's community in harmony with the promotion of peace, understanding and co-operation.
- Responsibility for the development of one's self.
- Participation in the development of society with recognition and respect for the dignity of one's fellow beings and for the integrity of the natural world.
- Use of a method of progressive self-education, known as the Scout Method, comprising programmes adapted to the various age groups.
