 - iii. Rover Scouts
- g. Four delegates nominated by the Scout Group Council of each registered Scout Group, at least one of whom must be a registered Scout.
- h. Nine representatives of;
 - i. the National Youth Forum for Scouts;
 - ii. the National Youth Forum for Venture Scouts and
 - iii. the National Youth Forum for Rover Scouts.

VERY IMPORTANT

Voting & Registering for National Council

- Every member of the National Council has one vote.
- Each Scout Group is required to register its four delegates attending the meeting of the National Council in advance of the meeting
- Each Scout County Youth Forum is required to register its two delegates per section (Scout, Venture Scout & Rover Scout) attending the meeting of the National Council in advance of the meeting.
- Each ex-officio member of the National Council will be required to register his or her attendance in advance of the meeting.

A separate mailing will be issued in the coming weeks with a login to register and a step-by-step instruction guide. National Council delegate passes can be printed at that point.

Delegate Cards will not be issued to members of the National Council that have not registered their delegates or individual attendance in advance of the deadline.

- Admittance cards for individuals entitled to be members of the National Council because of an appointment or position they hold are non-transferable and will only be issued to the person appointed to these positions. The appointees to these positions must be registered with the National Secretary as holding such position to be eligible for membership of the National Council.
- When checking in at the meeting of the National Council, delegates may be asked for identification to verify that they are the persons named on the admittance card. This may take the form of any of the following Identification documents - Driving Licence, Student Card, Ireland Age Card or Passport.

- A Scout Group Council may nominate four (4) delegates to be members of the National Council on its behalf. At least one of the four delegates must be a registered Scout. It is not necessary for any of the delegates to be members of that Scout Group but they must be members of Scouting Ireland. The National Council admittance cards are only transferrable with the approval of the Scout Group Council or Scout County Youth Forum. Admittance cards are only transferrable to a person who is selected by a Scout Group Council or Scout County Youth Forum and this can only be done by the use of a delegate transfer form which must be signed by the Scout Group Secretary or the Secretary of the Scout County Youth forum and the person who is transferring the admittance card. This form is to be brought to the meeting of the National Council and presented at the Check-in desk so that the new name can be added to the attendance record. This form will be available with the second mailing.

Elections:

Elections will be conducted consistent with SID 86.11 National Council Elections Policy.

Elections will be conducted for the following appointments/positions;

- Chief Scout
- International Commissioner
- Communications Commissioner
- Provincial Commissioner (Dublin Scout Province)

It is the responsibility of the candidates to submit the accompanying documents by 17:00 on Friday 2nd March 2018. National Office WILL NOT be contacting candidates to remind them about these documents and items received after this time and date will not be accepted.

Proposals to the National Council including those to amend the Constitution and Rules of the Association.

Any Scout Group Council, Scout County Board, any of the National Youth Forum or the National Management Committee may submit proposals for consideration to the National Council.

National Office must receive proposals by 17:00 on Friday 2nd March 2018. Late proposals will not be accepted and all proposals must be submitted on the enclosed forms. National Office will also accept proposals that have been scanned & emailed to proposals@scouts.ie. Do not send them to any other email address.

To assist the National Council, please provide a brief explanation of the intention behind the proposal or motion being submitted.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for clarification as required or if you need assistance in your drafting of motions.

The second mailing will be issued on or before the 16th March 2018 and will include the Agenda, submissions and other documents for the meeting.

I trust the above is in order but if you have any question regarding any of the above, please do not hesitate to contact me at natsecretary@scouts.ie.

Yours in Scouting
