

L14-2017 – Jamborí Tier II Team Open Call

28 March, 2017

Dear Rover Scout / Adult Scouter,

Following tremendous commitment, work and excitement by the Core Team (Tier III) over the past number of months I am confident in saying that Jamborí 2018 will be an amazing experience for participants and staff alike.

With the Jamborí taking place in Stradbally Hall Co. Laois from the 25th July – 2nd August, 2018; I recently met with the Core Team on site in an effort to help realise the full potential of the event.

On that note, I am now opening our open call for volunteer Rover Scouts & Adult Scouters to become part of the Tier II planning and implementation teams. (Tier II refers to the volunteer Team Leads who will report to the Jamborí Core Team Members).

By volunteering to be part of Tier II, you will be committing to supporting the planning and implementation stages of the event from April 2017 right through to the jamboree itself. As a successful applicant, you would be working alongside one of my Core Team team-leads, who are as follows:
