Re: Open Call for Department Core Teams

Dear Scouter,

Scouting Ireland wish to recruit suitable people for the following department's core team;

- Finance and Compliance Department
- Volunteer Resource Management Department
- Information and Communication Management Department
- Corporate Services Department
- Programme Services Department
- Transition Department

These core teams will provide advice and support to the department. To view the detailed summary of all departments which covers, introductions, departmental values, roles of the department, core teams, project teams, responsibilities and accountabilities please CLICK HERE

Composition

The Core Team will be made up as follows:

- Volunteers and staff members (including department manager) with the appropriate skills and experience
- The Chair, who must be a volunteer, will be chosen from within the core team on an annual basis
- Volunteer members will serve for a maximum of three years on the core team
- The core team can co-opt member(s) as and when required

Competencies

It is anticipated that the members of the team will have the expertise to assist with the roles of the department. These core teams are being established to provide executive support in implementing the programmes of the departments in line with the Scouting Ireland strategy.

Applications

Anyone (including youth members) wishing to apply for membership of these teams should submit a CV and cover letter to recruitment@scouts.ie indicating which department core team they wish to apply for no later than 17.00 hours on Friday 13th September 2019. Interviews for core teams will be held on the weekend 28th to 29th September 2019.

Yours in Scouting,

Conor McKeon
